After a team of MPs denied conspiracy to burn records kept in the police station," he alleged. "Malda had become a major hub of the fake currency racket and opium smuggling, but the TMC government was not taking any action due to its votebank politics," Siddharth Nath Singh claimed. Attacking the West Bengal's CM Mamata Banerjee, Siddharth Nath Singh said, "She has taken no action despite knowing it. 80 per cent of fake currency passes through Malda. Opium is produced there and smuggled to Bangladesh. Who do you want to save?" A mob of over 1 lakh people assembled by "stoking communal passion" but the state government took no action while provocative leaflets were distributed, Siddharth Nath Singh said. However, the Mamata Banerjee government has said that it occurred on account of some issues between the BSF and the locals in Malda district on January 3.
